

RIALTO THEATRE MISSION

The Rialto Theatre Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to the stewardship and management of the historic Rialto Theatre. The Rialto Theatre first opened its doors in 1920 hosting vaudeville shows including dance, comedy, and singing, interspersed with newsreels, cartoons, and short-subject silent films. Ninety-two years later, the Rialto continues to host a broad array of performers and talent, including rock bands, comedians, jazz musicians, film, flamenco, country, and children's performers. In fact, since the Rialto re-opened its doors in 2005, we have brought more than a million people to downtown Tucson.

Since the Rialto Theatre Foundation is charged with ensuring that Rialto Theatre continues to bring quality entertainment to the Tucson community, we are asking for your help to safeguard this historic cornerstone of downtown.
